

American Jewish Committee

Christian-Jewish and interreligious relations. Rabbi David Rosen - International Director of Interreligious Affairs. <http://www.ajc.org/Interreligious/ChristianJewish.asp>

The American Jewish Committee (AJC) was founded in 1906 with the aim of rallying all sections of American Jewry to defend the rights of Jews all over the world. Key areas of focus are: combating anti-Semitism and all forms of bigotry; promoting pluralism and shared democratic values; supporting Israel's quest for peace and security; advocating for energy independence; strengthening Jewish life.
