

Disputation and Dialogue: Readings in the Jewish-Christian Encounter. New York: KTAV Publishing House, Inc. and Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, 1975

| Talmage, Frank Ephraim, ed.

Paperback. A collection of essays by Christian and Jewish scholars designed for use in college and university settings. Scholars consider the controversial nature of Jewish-Christian relations by looking at specific ancient, medieval, and modern selections (disputations, biblical commentaries, poetry, etc.) arranged topically. Topics include "true" Israel, Messiah and Christ, law and grace, letter and Spirit, and the scepter of Judah. The collection is accompanied by commentary.