Hebrew Bible or Old Testament? Studying the Bible in Judaism and Christianity. University of Notre Dame Press, 1990

| Brooks, Roger; Collins, John, eds.

How Jews and Christians read differently the same texts. The first section of this anthology takes up the question of what Christians should call the first part of their Bible. Part two examines some of the theological questions that lurk when Jews and Christians engage together in biblical study, and the third takes up Jewish and Christian readings of specific texts.
