ICCJ 2018 Budapest Conference - Registration Open

31.03.2018 | Anette Adelmann; ICCJ General Secretary

It is our pleasure to announce that the online registration for our 2018 annual conference in Budapest is open.

The 2018 annual conference of the International Council of Christians and Jews (ICCJ) will be held in Budapest, Hungary, June 24 – 27 at the conference hotel "Danubius Hotel Flamenco".

This year's conference theme is: “Towards Reconciliation in a Broken World: Jewish and Christian Contributions to Responsible Citizenship”.

The ICCJ is honored to organize the conference in cooperation with its Hungarian member organizations, the Hungarian Christian-Jewish Society and the Hungarian Council of Christians and Jews. Working together with and being supported by many excellent local and regional institutions, religious groups and organizations and civic authorities, this conference will welcome people from around the world to the Hungarian capital and – on the last conference day (Wednesday, June 27) – to the city of Kecskemét where we will be generously hosted by the municipality of Kecskemét that celebrates its 650th anniversary in 2018.

Participants are welcome to register for the conference on our registration page where one can find further information concerning the conference.
