Israel Interfaith Association (IIA)

To promote understanding and mutual respect between all the sects, religions and ethnic groups within Israel http://www.crosswinds.net/~iccj/iia_home.html Deutsch

The Israel Interfaith Association is an independent organization that has been working since its inception in the year 1959 throughout the country to promote understanding and mutual respect between all the sects, religions, and ethnic groups within Israel. (English and German website)