

Overcoming Fear Between Jews and Christians. New York: Crossroad, 1992

| Charlesworth, James H. ed.

Fifteen fine essays on discovering the 'courage for dialogue' in a Jewish Christian context. Some deal with issues (interpretation of Bible and theology, attitudes toward the State of Israel) and others are about process (anguish, social dread, overcoming fear together with a splendid piece by Fr. Roland Murphy entitled 'The Fear of the Lord: the Fear to End all Fears.' Among the distinguished contributors are Elie Wiesel, Alan Culpepper, Martin Hengel, Paul Hanson, Alan Segal and John Pawlikowski.