

Pope John Paul II on Jews and Judaism 1979-1986.

| Fisher, Eugene; Klenicki, Leon, eds.

Washington, DC: National Conference of Catholic Bishops - Committee for Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs and Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, 1987

A collection of all of the officially printed addresses and remarks made throughout the world by Pope John Paul II from 1979 - 1986. In an introduction and initial thematic commentary, the editors note the positive development of the Pope's theological understanding of the Jewish-Christian relationship. These are followed by the chronological presentation of his statements.