The New Testament and Christian-Jewish Dialogue: Essays in Honor of David Flusser. Immanuel 24/25, 1990

| Lowe, Malcolm, ed.

The Ecumenical Theological Research Fraternity in Israel has published this special issue of its journal to honor the revered Jewish Israeli scholar of New Testament, David Flusser. Although a number of the essays are quite technical exegeses, others reflect more general interests (e.g., Thomas Aquinas on the place of the Jews, observations on the Catholic-Jewish dialogue since 1945), and the editor has contributed a bibliography of Flusser's works.
