

The Roots of Anti-Semitism in the Age of the Renaissance and Reformation. Philadelphia: Fortress Press, 1984

| Oberman, Heiko A.

One of the great Dutch scholars in the field of the Reformation here summarizes the finding of much detailed research in an easily assimilated fashion. Note particularly his treatment of Martin Luther, Erasmus, Reuchlin, Pfefferkorn, Calvin, and others.