

The Spirit of Renewal: Finding Faith after the Holocaust, Woodstock VT: Jewish Lights Publishing, 1994

| Feld, Edward

Rabbi Feld was born in 1943 and thus represents Jewish theology in the second generation after the survivors. This attractive book returns to the deepest tradition of Jewish meditation of suffering and evil, and is able to affirm of those who live within the Jewish community of faith that "we are the people who continue to argue about the meaning of the sacred in our lives." Abundant material for the Christian-Jewish conversation here.
