

Thinking and Working Together: Study and Action Suggestions for Jewish and Christian Congregations. Louisville: Global Mission Ministry Unit, Presbyterian Church, 1993

| The Union of American Hebrew Congregations; The Presbyterian Church

A pamphlet containing concise suggestions for twelve interfaith discussion sessions (six with a spiritual and theological emphasis, and six emphasizing religion and social action), along with suggestions for acting together in a social justice project in the community. The three modules encourage Jews and Christians to participate with one another in thoughtful conversation and/or community action and reflection.
