Crow, Archie

The Rev Archie Crow B.A., B.D., Dip Ed., is married with five grown up children. He was educated at Scotch College and Melbourne and Monash Universities. In World War II, he was an army officer, and retrained as a Presbyterian minister, at Ormond College Theological Hall. From 1967-85 he was the chaplain of Scotch College, and founding president of the Victorian Indonesian Language Teachers' Association. His travels include visits to Israel in 1970 and 1986. He is a member of the Council of Christians and Jews, Victoria, and of the Victorian Council of Churches' Working Group on Christians and Jews. While a member of the Uniting Church of Australia (Victorian Synod) Working Group on Christians and Jews, he is currently Minister of Paton Uniting Church, Deepdene.Anne Amos is a Minister of the Uniting Church, Australia.

Copyright JCRelations