

"Ethics in the Shadow of the Holocaust" to be Theme of Student Conference

30.04.2007

An international student conference on the theme "Ethics in the Shadow of the Holocaust" will be held May 26-June 3, 2007 at the Heinrich Pesch Haus - Center for Applied Ethics in Ludwigshafen/Rhein, Germany.

"Ethics in the Shadow of the Holocaust" to be Theme of Student Conference

An international student conference on the theme "Ethics in the Shadow of the Holocaust" will be held May 26-June 3, 2007 at the Heinrich Pesch Haus - Center for Applied Ethics in Ludwigshafen/Rhein, Germany. The week-long conference will include lectures, talks, workshops, and excursions to places of Holocaust-related interest. Conference speakers include scholars from Western and Eastern Europe, Israel, and the USA. A maximum of five persons per nation may participate. For further information, see the conference website at www.esh-conference.org.