

ICCJ Annual Conference Online: Save the Date!

01.05.2022 | Pavol Bargár

In 2022, like the last year, the ICCJ annual conference is going to be held in a virtual mode. The dates are June 13th, 2022 and June 15th, 2022. The theme of the conference is “‘Stories We Live By’: Relating to the Self and Other.”

Please accept our invitation to join us for two webinars and three workshops with engaging and inspiring speakers.

In the first webinar, on Monday, June 13th, Prof. Willie James Jennings (Yale University, USA) will offer an in-depth introduction to the conference theme.

On Wednesday, June 15th, Prof. Judith Frishman (Leiden University, Netherlands), Prof. Pavel Hošek (Charles University in Prague, Czech Republic) and Dr Michael Trainor (Australian Catholic University in Adelaide) will elaborate on the theme by exploring the issues of false prophets, false prophecies, and false hopes as part of the second webinar.

The three subsequent workshops will deal with stories emerging from various contexts and traditions as well as the impact of the war in Ukraine.

Please save the date not to miss this exciting event!
