

The International Center for Russian & East European Jewish Studies

The International Center for Russian & East European Jewish Studies founded in Moscow in 2003. The Center's Objectives are: * Study the history and cultural heritage of the Russian and East European Jewry; * Propagate knowledge of the history and culture of the Russian and East European Jews; * Promote the revival of the national identity of the Russian Jewry, based on absorption of the Jewish cultural heritage and historical traditions with respect to realities of the contemporary world; * Advance international collaboration in the field of East European Jewish studies. (Russian and English)