

Within Context: Essays on Jews and Judaism in the New Testament. Collegeville, Minnesota: Liturgical Press, 1993

| Efroymson, David P.; Fisher, Eugene J.; Klenicki, Leon, eds.

Essays by Christian scholars regarding salient issues (a faithful portrait of Judaism, Paul and the Law, opponents of Jesus), events (the passion and death of Jesus) and scripture texts (e.g., the synoptic Gospels, the Gospel of John) that have been problematic in teaching about Jews and Judaism. The book includes the twelve-page statement, "Within Context," published in 1986 as a guide for Catholic teachers, homilists and textbook publishers.
