Some examples of anti-Judaic Christian art. Ecclesia and Synagoga

Negative images of Judaism in Christian Art Ecclesia and Synagoga

Ecclesia and Synagoga a double-portal of the sout to the Strasbourg catheo 1230)

Here both, the Church and Synagogue, are symbolize to each other in the sense concordia veteris et novi te the unity of the Old and Ne Testaments. Both figures a character. However, the C depicted as triumphant wit imperial robe on her should staff and chalice in her har symbolizing her divine autl looks ahead assured of he the world. The Synagogue symbolized as defeated, h broken more than once, th slipping from her hands, a covering her eyes and her bowed.

1400-1410)

Ecclesia on a horse is attacking the Synagogue with a lance. Her shield carries the Christian symbol of a fish. The Synagogue is symbolized as riding a pig. Her eyes are closed and with her left hand she holds on to a branch. One of many depictions of the "Judensau" in the art work of European churches.
