Some news about the website

Changes at jcrelations.net

For more than four years this Web site -- jcrelations.net -- has hosted the Web pages of the Austrian Koordinierungsausschuss für christlich-jüdische Zusammenarbeit (Coordinating Committee for Christian-Jewish Cooperation). The Committee has now established its own domain name and together with jcrelations.net is hosted on the Web space of the International Council of Christians and Jews. The Committee's Web address (URL) is nowhttp://www.christenundjuden.org

The Australian Council of Christians and Jews with three of its regional councils had also been hosted by jcrelations.net, As a member organization of the ICCJ, it has now obtained a subdomain on the ICCJ's Web space. Its URL has changed tohttp://www.ccj-australia.iccj.org

Fritz Voll of Calgary, Alberta (Canada) remains the volunteer Webmaster of both sites.

The diverse Web sites of the ICCJ remain closely linked with each other. The resources of each site are still listed in jcrelations.net and easily accessible from the lists of Articles, Statements, Resources, Institutes and Organizations.
